DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of group I in the reply filed on 07/26/2008 is acknowledged. However, upon further consideration of the case, it is noted that the instant application is a 371 case and the restriction requirement is re-written as below:
2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-70, drawn to an apparatus for painting.

Group II, claim(s) 72-74, 76, drawn to an apparatus for painting.

Group III, claim(s) 77-93, drawn to a method of painting.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature (STP) of group I is directed to an apparatus for painting having column shaped member, at least one spray nozzle; an electrically insulated platform and at least one wall. The forgoing STP is present in Laughlin US 6,899,108 (see Figs 6-7, 9 and 11). Therefore there is not unity of invention when the STF is present in the prior art. Hence, lack of unity is held by the examiner under 37 CFR 1.475 and PCT Rule 13.

4. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

A) claim 28; B) claim 29; C) claim 30; D) claims 31-32; E) claim 33 F) claim 34; G) claim 35 and 37-39 H) claim 36; I) claims 40-42; J) claim 43; K) claims 45-47; L) claims 48-50; M) claim 53; N) claims 54-58 O) claims 59 and 65; P) claim 60; Q) claims 61-64 and R) claims 66-70. Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

5. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The species described above are directed to the arrangements and types of nozzles and circulation connections and control of the nozzles.

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-27.

6. This application also contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

1) claim 79; 2) claim 80; 3) claim 82; 4) claim 83; 5) claim 84 6) claim 85; 7) claim 86 8) claim 87; 8) claim 88; 9) claims 89-90; 10) claim 91; 11) claim 92; 12) claim 93; Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The species described above are directed to the types and orientations of spray jet/s

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 77-78 and 81.

8. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature (STP) of group I is directed to a method for painting comprising the steps of electrically charging the liquid, feeding the liquid to the nozzle, atomizing and spraying the charged liquid against a body and confining the liquid outside the body. The forgoing STP is present in Laughlin US 6,899,108 (see Abstract and Figs 6-7, 9 and 11). As such, there is not unity of invention when the STF is present in the prior art.

9. A telephone call has not been made to applicant to enable applicant's time for careful consideration of the lack of unity requirement and/or enable applicant if so desired to amend the present claims.

10. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
